At this season of the year when fresh fruit is unobtainable except at prohibitive prices, you can still procure from your grocer our tinned peaches which are as good as fresh gathered fruit and as cheap as ever. Although there are several so called "Tigre" Brands, ours is the only one bearing the "Tiger" upon it, and this we can guarantee as being of the very best obtainable fruit.
The process of canning renders these peaches more wholesome than fresh fruit, and they are specially recommended for children and invalides.

DANGERS TO PUBLIC HEALTH

In spite of our repeated protests vessels are every day allowed to enter this port from Santos, which is at present such a hot-bed of yellow fever that, according to the English Consul, the captains of 18 foreign vessels have in one month succumbed to that terrible malady. It seems that the deaths average 50 daily, which is an enormous ratio for so small a place.

The state of affairs at Rio Janeyro, though not quite so bad, is also very menacing to the health of the River Plate, so much so that the authorities at Montevideo have declared that port infected. Under these circumstances it is desirable to close Montevideo and B. Ayres against all vessels that may have touched at ports south of Bahia and compel them to discharge their cargo at Flores Island and convey their passengers to the Falkland Islands or Sandy Point.

We are only at the beginning of summer, and we know from experience that February and March are the most dangerous months, because the population of Buenos Ayres has then been enfeebled by the excessive heat. Hence it is urgent to take prompt steps if we would guard against a repetition of the plague of 1871.

What makes the danger doubly great is the unsanitary condition of the approaches to the Madero Port and even of the docks. The smell yesterday morning from the docks was that of an immense latrine, so sickening as to cause a feeling of nausea among the passengers who arrived by train from the suburbs at the Central Station. In any other country there would be an outburst of public indignation, a meeting in Plaza Victoria and a very strongly-worded address to the Government.

"The Government is not worth a dam" is the sentiment freely expressed on all sides. We fully agree in the opinion, but lest some of our readers should suppose there is anything profane in the expression we quote the words of Col. Youle in his Thesaurus of Oriental Language: "Dam is the smallest copper coin known in the East; hence the phrase 'not worth a dam' is strictly correct."

But if the Government be not worth a dam the people are not much better when they display such utter indifference to public health. Two things are at present most urgently called for; first to close the port against Rio Janeyro and Santos; secondly to shut up the Madero Docks until a line of water-closets for the use of the vessels be constructed on the quays.

This is an unpleasant subject to force on our readers, but the menace to public health is tremendous. You have only to go near the docks, and the smell is enough to convince you of the fact.

THE NEWS FROM EUROPE.

Yesterday's telegrams confirm the impression that Europe is likely to be convulsed with a fierce agitation on the question of tariffs, in other words, that Free Trade and Protection are about to divide the Continent into two hostile camps. All the French Chambers of Commerce have raised a simultaneous outcry against the new import duties, which, in their opinion, must tend to ruin the trade of France. At the same time the people of Italy protest energetically against the proposed Zollverein, which has for special object to shut out France and Russia from the commerce of Central and Southern Europe.

The masses of the people all over the Continent have begun to feel the pressure of Protective tariffs and to clamor instinctively for Free Trade. As Burke said, "Nations do not reason, but they feel," and hence the discontent that is now making itself evident in France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland and elsewhere at this war of tariffs. What may be the issue of the present agitation is more than we can predict, but the evils caused by Protection in the last two years are now felt in every part of the Continent. There is complete revulsion of feeling, which will perhaps shake every throne in Europe to its foundation, unless statesmen hasten to avert coming disasters by removing all barriers against international trade. The lesson will not be without its effect in Buenos Ayres, where the present tariffs are unbearable.

In the political world the death of the Khedive, Tewfik Pasha, is an unfortunate occurrence. His son Abbas, being only 17 years of age, the Government must remain for the next four years in the hands of a Regency Council, composed of English officials. This will, of course, increase the animosity of France and Turkey against Great Britain, more especially because the English journals insist that the death of Tewfik renders the evacuation by the British troops more distant than ever.

Meantime the epidemic of Influenza (which carried off Tewfik) is making ravages all over Europe, and we regret to see that His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII, is among the persons attacked by it. Complications of the gravest character may arise if either the Pope, the infant King of Spain, or other crowned heads fall victims to the epidemic.

The most trifling event may sometimes lead to the most unforeseen consequences: it was a question about Prince Charles of Hohenzollern that produced the Franco-German war and changed the map of Europe. At present the King of Portugal is apparently on his last legs owing to the misery caused at Lisbon by Curso Forzoso, and if the House of Braganza collapse it may be the signal for troubles elsewhere.

Russia is suffering terribly from famine; even the Russian papers assert that such horrors have not been seen since the Irish famine of 1847. The Government is powerless to stretch out a helping hand, while people are dying by thousands. It is a government of Krupp guns, that knows nothing about the vital interests of the empire.

THE CLYDE'S MAILS.

The Montevideo cable supplies the following summary of the mails brought by the Royal Mail steamer Clyde:—

Brussels, Dec. 14th.—The steamer Ballay, on the French Congo service, was lost in the Brazzaville Rapids. The captain and two sailors were drowned.

Cherbourg, Dec. 14th.—The Russian steamer Cymbriad, laden with Cardiff coal, struck on the rocks and sank. The crew were saved.

London, Dec. 14th.—The vessel Enterken, from Glasgow, sank in the Channel; 30 lives lost.

Paris, Dec. 14th.—The Socialist Deputy Lafargue was made the object of a popular manifestation at Lille. No disorder occurred, although an effort was made to organise a counter demonstration.

Berlin, Dec. 14th.—The Liberal organs state that the Liberal party will vote for all commercial treatics submitted to Parliament.

Vienna, Dec. 14th.—There is a sweep-majority in favour of all the commercial treaties presented to the Chambers.

Paris, Dec. 15.—The Bulgarian Government, according to a telegram from Sophia, is resolved not to admit any correspondents of the French Press or of the Havas Agency. This will bring about an immediate suspension of diplomatic relations.

Rome, December 15th.—The Monitor, organ of the Vatican, publishes an article on the good relations which ought to exist between France and the Holy See.

Paris, Dec. 15th.—The papers state that the German Government has decided to present a bill for the suppression of spies.

Paris, Dec. 16th.—Several commercial towns are organizing popular manifestations to protest against the ultra-protectionist tendencies of the Legislature.

Paris, Dec. 16.—All the papers, without distinction of political color, applaud the energetic attitude of the Minister of Foreign Affairs in regard to the Bulgarian question.

Berlin, Dec. 17.—The German parliament has approved the treaty of commerce with Austria. A similar treaty with Italy is at present being discussed.

Copenhagen, Dec. 18.—Influenza has assumed epidemic dimensions here. The King and Queen are at present suffering from it. The condition of the Queen is very critical

Lisbon, Dec. 18.—The crisis is becoming worse and the distress of the masses is terrible. It is probable that disturbances will break out, as the working-classes are starving. All the factories are closing, and nearly 2,000 men employed in the fort have been dismissed.

Biarritz, Dec. 17.—Mr. Gladstone and his family have arrived here.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

POLITICAL.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Dec. 12th

Some of us have supposed that there were no English peasantry left. Others had heard of them but had not seen them. Under these circumstances, the idea occurred to Mr. Schnadhorst, the Barnum of the Radical party, that specimens should be collected and brought to London. Accordingly the Memorial Hall in Farrington street was a day or two ago filled with "bona fide" agricultural labourers, including, as the Chronicle says, the broad impassive faced Mr. Arch, the keen looking chimney sweep Mr. Hines, from Oxfordshire, the clear, grey-eyed, strong featured Mr. Ball of Kent, the white haired veteran of the soil, Tom Whiting, with guarded face, powerful hand and a voice like a trumpet call, the green-keen-eyed hawk featured—or Green, the keen-eyed hawk-featured peasant from South Oxon—no one can tell which, Zachariah Walker, the Norfolk Unio ist, and many another, all of brick-red complexions, some in grey tweeds, some in respectable black, and a few in corduroys, and in their sturdiness of look and independence recalling the Ironsides of Cromwell. Mr. Schnadhorst, in his shining gold spectacles, kept in the background whilst the three Liberal whips did the ornamental. Dr. Spence Watson, the Newcastle organiser, who has just burst into the bloom of celebrity down South, presided. The labourers at this historical Rural Conference had all the speaking to themselves. Each man had five minutes allotted to him to deliver his sentiments. And what did they say? The key note was perhaps struck by Mr. Joseph Arch in his plain-speaking manner. "Votes" he said "are at the bottom of it. Votes are at the bottom of Primrose meetings and three-penny teas. Votes are at the bottom of this meeting." That is it. Both parties are scrambling for Hodge's vote, and Hodge, as he was from the beginning, is suspicious. Fifty of these men spoke; and many of them spoke like accomplished orators; for were not many of them nonconformists and accustomed to spout in the chapel in preference to praying in the church? And what did they want? Some spoke of protection, some of the poor laws, some of allotments, bad housing, bad land cultivation, village councils, but only one mentioned the words "land nationalisation." Most of them seemed sturdy individualists ready to stand up for their own, and agreeing on one point at least, that squire and parson, with their "pol-parrot, pol-praying wives and daughters" should be abolished. Further than this, the voice of the Rural Conference seemed to say "give us the three F's." There is the rub. For the next day, the agricultural labourers and delegates were entertained at breakfast at the Holborn restaurant, and could scarcely do justice to their fare, in their anxiety waiting for Mr. Gladstone, who was to make a speech to them. Their expressions of love and adoration for the "old un" were repeated to one another in a Babel of Saxon dialects. At last he came. The marble walls of the Holborn banqueting room made music of the peasants' cheers and added a new brilliance to the silvery notes of the Premier—the ex-premier I should say; but at the National Liberal Club they are so cock-sure of a majority of one hundred for the "Old Man" that even the Unionists acquiesce, even Goschen acquiesces in the inevitable, and Conservative speeches seem one after the other to lower in pitch. But what of the three F's? It appears only yesterday I heard those "silvery notes" proclaiming that the case of Ireland was wholly exceptional and the land legislation though suited to that portion of Her Majesty's dominions would never be introduced into this country. But it will. Hodge says it shall. The old man was in a fix. His speech betrayed it. He talked of a reform of the poor law and chattered vaguely about village councils, but said nothing. Ball of Kent, Straw of Oxon, Whiting of somewhere else went home scratching their heads in doubt, and the doubt—whatever is said openly—depresses the Liberals. Mr. Gladstone's chances of getting in will be better calculated a few months hence, but if he does get in and is again going to deceive us with "Words," he will be turned adrift, or driven with ignominy into the House of Peers.

* * *

I borrow the following important paragraph from the Pall Mall Gazette:

"The vote of the Swiss people last Sunday, vetoing the proposed purchase of railways, is interesting for other things than as entailing the resignation of Dr. Welti, the President of the Confederation. It is a notable rebuff, for one thing, to the Socialistic movement. That the State purchase of the railways would have some advantages seems to have been generally admitted; and the proposal was easily carried in the Federal Assembly, Nevertheless the hostility of the Swiss people was most pronounced, the bill being rejected by a majority of more than two to one, and the poll being exceptionally large. At the last Referendum the total poll was 286,480. On Sunday it was 395,000—268,000 against, 127,000 for. This is, we believe, the largest poll that there has been for several years. The Swiss electors have for some time shown a strong hostility to all measures tending towards centralization and the multiplication of Federal officials; and it was this feeling, no doubt, which dominated the poll on Sunday.

* * *

Lord Salisbury's mot about the coming war being a war of tariffs is being curiously illustrated at this moment, in the German Reichstag in the United States Presidential Message, in the ignoble squabble between Canada and Newfoundland and in Sidney, where the protectionist Government has only saved itself by a small majority, due to the division of the labour party. Chancellor Caprivi's speech in favour of his commercial treaties with Italy, Austria-Hungary and Switzerland is very well treated in to-day's Times. There is no occasion for me to quote the alphabet of free trade. It is quite understood that if General Caprivi's economics will not bear discussion his object is political. England had the same object in making a commercial treaty with France under Louis Napoleon. To the impartial mind the economic occurrences of the moment in Germany and North America are in the main favourable to free trade principles. The facts that are opposed to these are moral, not intellectual. They reside in humanity and in such humanity as we find represented by codfishers, silver bugs, Alsatian manufacturers, and what Caprivi calls "struggling" small proprietors, all too poor to risk, too ignorant to know, too vilely stubborn to be persuaded.

* * *

Sir Charles Lilley, Chief Justice of Queensland, has been interviewed by the P. M. G. Sir Charles hails from the state which is the birth place of the federal movement, and this is what he says:—"I am a democrat, Australia is a democratic country. The longer you live in it, the more you will find that Australians will not submit to monarchical rule." He says much more which you can see for yourselves in to-night's P. M. It is only an opinion, but it confirms what Christie Murray and others wrote of the Australian Commonwealth in the Contemporary, Fortnightly and Nineteenth Century. It also exposes another sign of that political dislocation that reigns everywhere from Chicago to Paris, Rio to Brisbane, where the old and the new civilisations are engaged in a final struggle. The battle between the bishops and the Government, between Church and State, in France at this hour is not the least of the signs of political transition. The same contest is coming on here rapidly. Sir Charles Lilley made a good point in insinuating that the separation of Australia would strengthen the British naval power. We have all said that, but people are unwilling to drop what they have, even if they eventually gain by it.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Jan. 11th.

There is no truth in the reports about revolution or disturbances here.

The protracted drought in the country districts is beginning to give rise to misgivings amongst estancieros.

It was rumored yesterday that the London syndicate had withdrawn its offer to start the Uruguayan Bank. The postponement of the debate in the Chambers lent some color to this rumor. The official organ, however, states that the new bank is an accomplished fact.

Estancieros on the frontier are collecting signatures for a petition to Government to reduce the duties on cattle exported.

General Vasquez has left for Salto and Colonels Klinger and Christy for Tacuarembo, on special missions.

It is said that should the London syndicate withdraw its proposal to start the Uruguayan Bank, a syndicate of Oriental and Argentine capitalists will take up the proposal and start the bank.

The Spanish steamer Conde de Vilana, which is now two years in port, is to be sold by auction next week.

The new light-house law came into force yesterday.

The International Regattas come off on the 24th inst.

The Pocitos Bathing Establishment was opened last night. There was an enormous crowd there.

The weather is very hot.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Our provincial exchanges are monotonously dull. It is a case of 'toujours politique.' The Radicals in Villa Mercedes are veering round towards Dr. Saenz Peña's candidature. They are already praising it up, and express their astonishment that it was not sooner started. The Puntano Radicals are tacking.

On Sunday the Italians had it all to themselves in Rosario, on the occasion of the opening of the Italian Hospital there. The Duke of Lucignano spoke and was greatly applauded by his assembled countrymen. Other Italian notabilities delivered speeches. On the whole, the opening of the Hospital was a most interesting ceremony.

As the members of the English Literary Society intend paying a visit to Tandil, in search of the picturesque, the following item of news will be found by them to be interesting:—The editor of the local newspaper has got into a row with the local postmaster, and a duel is being arranged, to be fought near the famous rocking stone.

Cordoba is at it again. That fatal association, the Cadeneros, are at the bottom of another row, which wound up in the arrest of two ex-officers. It appears a few Cadeneros were taking a walk, when they met the two ex-officers alluded to. A Cadenero immediately went up and gave one of the ex-officers a box on the ears. Revolvers were pulled out, the police rushed in, no one was hurt, and the two ex-officers were carried off to prison, the Cadeneros proving beyond all question that the ex-officers were the cause of the row, for if they, the Cadeneros, had not met them, the ears of the ex-officer would not have been boxed.

The good people of Parana are in a decidedly good humor, not because the political horizon is clearing, but simply because Mr. Passement has arrived there with capital and instructions to open a branch of the New Bank of the Argentine Nation. The New Bank is beginning to open branches, according to its charter, in all those towns where the National Bank had branches.

La Plata is still a prey to alarms. The Governor has left on a tour through the province, to push Dr. Saenz Peña's candidature.

Mendoza is still quiet. The Radical elements have mustered very strong there. In fact, Mendoza may be looked upon as their head quarters now.

THE VILLA NUEVA DISASTER.

Although it is somewhat late in the day to report upon the floods at Villa Nueva, a few notes taken on the spot may prove of interest to our readers.

The daily papers have been full of details for some days past of the damage done, and although the "total disappearance of the town" and "nine feet of water in the plaza at Villa Nueva" are exaggerations, still the disaster has been extremely serious, and Villa Nueva will assuredly have to be built over again, as most of the houses not actually thrown down are in a tottering and dangerous condition.

Villa Nueva is an old frontier village of some 2000 inhabitants, and lies on the south bank of the river Tercero, which is here some 200 metres wide and with very shallow banks, there being for ten months of the year little or no water to be seen in the sandy river bed.

Villa Maria is a hamlet which came into existence in 1868, when the Central Argentine Railway reached the nearest point at which it passes Villa Nueva, and lies on the north bank of the River Tercero, there being about a league between the two villages.

Last year the railway from Villa Maria to Rufino, through Villa Nueva and Carlota, was opened to the public, the management having been undertaken by the administration of the Pacific Railway Company, and, had it not been for the prompt assistance rendered by this railway company, which did everything in its power to give shelter and food to the sufferers, it would have gone very hard with many of the inhabitants of Villa Nueva.

Villa Maria may be said not to have suffered at all, excepting a few ranchos near the river; but in Villa Nueva, it is our belief, after going carefully over the town with several engineers, that there are not above ten houses left standing of which the foundations have not sunk from three to eight inches, and consequently the walls resting upon them are split and threaten to fall.

As we walked through the town we were accosted by various house-owners, whose whole fortune was lying before us, a heap of ruins, and were asked whether we thought that the Government was going to do anything for them! "Why don't you all join together," we replied "and do something for yourselves, instead of sitting there and looking at the fallen houses?" But this did not seem to strike them as the proper course, and they resumed their seats and gazed apathetically at the ruins.

This utter apathy struck us very forcibly, as demonstrating the indolent, fatalistic tendencies of the country people in the interior, who, in the face of such disaster, are content to sit down and wonder whether "El Gobierno" will help them out!

If a similar misfortune befalls a town inhabited by Saxon or Teuton races, as soon as the floods abate the whole available population starts upon the work of reparation and, assisted by public subscription, and perhaps, in very serious cases, by Government, the town is rebuilt and repaired in a very short time.

When we were in Villa Nueva the floods had abated and many people had returned to their homes, and we actually saw numbers of people inhabiting houses, some partly fallen, some with great cracks in the walls, and all in so dangerous a state that the authorities ought not to have allowed anybody to go back to them without previous technical inspection.

We have little doubt that we shall hear of casualties occasioned by falling walls and roofs in Villa Nueva during the next few months, as the soft, sandy soil gets dry and the foundations of the houses sink still more.

The town looks as though it had undergone a severe bombardment or earthquake, and now that so little of it is left, one is tempted to ask whether it would not be better to move the population bodily across the river to the higher ground at Villa Maria and make one decent village, or—we beg its pardon—city, of the lot. There is plenty of room, and land is worth, comparatively, nothing.

It will be strange, also, if some epidemic does not spring up shortly to add to the misfortunes of the village, since all the wells and cesspools are said to have been washed into each other underground, by the floods, and we noticed quite a varied assortment of foul odours as we climbed, rather than walked through streets strewn with wreckage, dead fowls and broken furniture.

We could see no attempt, either on the part of the authorities or the people, to pull down the tottering walls or reduce the reigning confusion to any semblance of order. All the "gente decente" seemed to have left the town, and beyond a knot of policemen taking "mate" in front of their barracks, and a more animated crowd of the poorest people getting municipal "vales" exchanged for rations at the market, one of the few apparently undamaged buildings, we saw nobody about except the aforesaid apathetic gentlemen waiting for the Government to come and rebuild their houses.

We were told of one episode which is too "racy of the soil" to remain in oblivion. When the floods came into the town the police got the poor people, "chinas," etc, to the railway station, and they were given the goods shed, empty cargo wagons and passenger carriages to live in for the next few days, and, as soon as some money was sent up to the authorities for the relief of the sufferers, they had a big "baile!" and the orgie that followed could certainly not be described by a respectable journal; and this with a metre of water in the plaza and the town tumbling into the rushing floods in all directions.

As one of the English railway employees remarked, referring to the poor people in the wagons, etc. "My dear sir, these people are mighty sorry to see the waters go down. They have been better housed and better fed here in the station than ever they were before, they have had plenty of dancing and fun, and now they have to go back to their tumble-down ranchos, or what's left of them, they are real sorry, you bet!" And we believed him.—Financial Review.

THE ARGENTINE BRIGHTON.

(From the "Railway News".)

Mar del Plata, Jan. 5th.

After an indifferent dinner at the Railway refreshment-room at Plaza Constitucion, where the comestibles had obviously been kept simmering until an opportunity for experimenting with them upon unsuspecting travellers presented itself, and where peaches of almost incalculable powers of resistance were considerately valued at 25 to 30 cents a piece, our train steamed out of the Great Southern terminus for Mar del Pleta.

Being Sunday, the Mar del Plata express was short, consisting of two first-class sleeping coaches, four second-class carriages containing Russian Jewish immigrants, and the necessary luggage and brakevans.

The number of people going down for the bathing season has fallen of very largely since the crisis came on. Those persons who can afford a month at the seaside are very limited, and few even is the number of those who can scrape enough money together to put in an appearance for a week or thereabouts.

Some nights before holidays, 12 to 16 coaches go off fully packed with passengers, most of them for a short period only.

Towards midnight we retire to our berths for a few hours' slumber, and fortunate is he who can achieve it. It is requisite to be an expert sailor, as the movement may be likened to the rolling and pitching in a choppy sea. Some passengers were sea-sick and others, unaccustomed to the strange motion, felt uncomfortable. Whether this should be attributed to the condition of the road-bed or of the rolling stock your Correspondent does not feel called upon to determine, but probably the crisis is answerable for this as for innumerable other minor evils of existence in Argentina at present. But all things have an end, and we duly arrive at our destination. The immigrants are carted off to a colony bought by Baron Hirsch near Mar del Sud, about 12 leagues away. They seem a fairly good-looking lot and not what one expects to see after reading about them. They go to join a considerable number of brethren already established, and there are more to follow.

We take up our abode at the Bristol Hotel, mostly patronized by Argentine families, and every room is taken. The Grand Hotel is also full, and a little more moderate in its charges.

One of Edison's electric engines with 16 nominal horse power provides 400 electric lights throughout the building. The dining room is superb, the finest in South America, and has 60 lights. Its ceiling and walls are handsomely painted in exquisite style. Every party has a separate table and is served with the best the country produces. An orchestra enlivens the hours after lunch and dinner. It consists of 16 musicians, including the conductor Signor Ismael, and costs the Hotel $100 daily. Yesterday a visit was paid to Admiral Solier's yacht, lying in the harbour, a beautiful cutter of 50 tons. We were entertained on sherry and biscuits and also with diving and swimming exhibitions by two of the crew, black boys from St. Vincent in the Cape Verde islands. Whilst we were on board a drove of dolphins steeplechased past, also on the outlook for refreshments.

General Roca is staying here at present, and President Pellegrini is expected.

The arrival of the train every morning is a chief event of the day, and visitors flock round the railway station in a manner suggestive of Folkestone visitors welcoming arrivals by the Boulogne packet. The time of arrival is, however, a matter of great uncertainty, hardly two trains in the week being up to time. The train of this morning arrived at noon instead of 9.20 a.m., that of yesterday was an hour and a-half late.

Mar del Plata has a fine, open beach and is one of three bights. The bathing is excellent. On the shore of one of the bays is an extensive pile of unfinished buildings which represents "The St. James's Hotel up to date."

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The aggregate returns of the Western Railway up to November 29 compare as follow:—

	£	Miles open
1890.....	217,555	338
1891.....	142,807	338

The aggregate returns of the Central Argentine up to December 6 compare as follow:—

	£	Miles open
1890.....	686,217	639
1891.....	337,798	711

The returns of the Anglo-Argentine Tramways up to October 20 amounted to £112,303 against £144,397 for the corresponding period in 1890.

The local Board of the Pacific Railway have submitted to Government for approval the contract made by the London Board for the working of the Villa Maria and Rufino Railway. The latter concern made this arrangement with a view to a more economic working.

The estimates of the North West Argentine—Villa Mercedes in San Luis to Rioja—have been approved by the N. R. Board.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Galveston telegrams in another column show that Influenza is decimating the great ones of the earth in played-out Europe. Tewfik, the Prince of Saxe Weimar, the Archbishop of Paris, the Archbishop of Utrecht and others have gone "under the sod" in a short time; and the British public here will be sorry to learn that Prince Albert Victor, betrothed only last week to his cousin Princess May, has caught the worst form of the Plague, pneumonia. While Emperors Kings and statesmen are discussing the burning problems of the end of the century, "Pallida Mors" seems strongly inclined to take a seat at their Council Table and upset their calculations.

The heat was so overpowering yesterday that even the Gold Eagle could have been knocked down with a feather; but the Bears were too done up to wield the slender weapon. We observed an unusual lot of sneezing going on, on and off Change: but, whether this was due to snuff or Influenza, we are quite unable to say.

Politics are said to be as hot as the weather, and to have arrived at the state of Scotch metaphysics—one man explaining to another what he knows nothing about himself. We leave them there, with our best wishes.

Alta Gracia, the rising, little, nice village in the Cordoba mountains, and about which we published an article on Dec. 22nd, is amply fulfilling the praise bestowed upon it. Dr. J. J. Kyle and family and Mr. Hislop of the London and River Plate Bank are now there and say they are thoroughly enjoying the beautiful scenery, grand bracing air and its many other advantages. Any of our subscribers wanting a complete change at very moderate cost cannot do better than try a trip to Alta Gracia—the Central Argentine Railway has now resumed traffic and is issuing special return tickets to Alta Gracia extending over 3 months at a reduction of 25 %.

The War Minister is a musical man and a jolly old warrior who believes that the civilized as well as the savage breast can be soothed by the charms of the divine Muse of music. Therefore, he has ordered that in future, from 8 to 10 p.m. on Thursdays, Sundays and holidays, a military band shall play in the plazas San Martin, Lavalle, Constitucion, and Palermo Park. As for Belgrano, the people there are such proficients in music themselves, that the Minister considers a band on Sundays and holidays will be more than enough for them. Flores has its private band. If times do not improve soon, we'll start a STANDARD fife and drum band, to help to keep the public spirits up and the Gold Eagle down.

We thank the Red Star Agency for the latest English papers.

Senhor Assiz Brazil is coming from Rio, on a Special Mission to the Argentine Government. We have no idea what he wants, but he is sure to get lots of Champagne dinners, whether he wants them or not; and swallow them he must.

The right man in the right place. Our esteemed countryman Professor Fitzsimons, Rector of the National College of Corrientes, and the oldest N. C. Rector in the Republic, has been promoted to the important post of Inspector General of Education. We feel confident in predicting the very best results from this appointment, which does credit to the perspicuity of the Minister of Education.

The London papers have lost no time in letting all the boys in Dame Europa's school know what that burly youngster Master John Bull means to do in Egypt. Of course Master Bear, Master Cock and the Eagle cousins will be furious; but this is not very likely to alter John's determination.

There is a capital concert announced for to-night in the English Institute, Barracas, in aid of the Sunday school there. The programme is admirably selected; and Mesdlles. Barber, McFarlane, Schwarz and Booking, and Messrs. Smith and Rev. A. T. B. Pinchard will take part in it. Reserved seats $2, unreserved $1, children half price.

We take off our working hat to the subscriber in San Nicolas who sent us yesterday splendid samples of potatoes grown in that flourishing partido, with a request "to place them alongside those brought from Ireland by Mr. Peter Daly." As we ate the latter for lunch with a fat loin chop last week, we have no hesitation in promising faithfully to dispose of the San Nicolas "taters" in the same agreeable way; but will keep them on view in our Museum for a few days.

We observe a great increase in the number of friends dropping in to wish us a Happy New Year since Mr. Michaelsen half filled our cellar with Belfast Ginger Ale and Champagne Cider. We regret to say that the key of the said cellar has been lost, and it will take at least ten days to make a new one. The popularity of G. B. A. and C. C. in this hot weather is astounding.

The Zoos have thoroughly licked the Belgrano Tramway into shape. We had the pleasure of a run on it, for the first time for years, on Sunday, and were astonished at the pleasing change. The guards are politely inexorable in not allowing even one passenger more than the cars can hold; and the Inspectors are so courteous that it is a pleasure to keep the 'boleto' in order to witness the Chesterfieldian bow and wreathed smile with which they ask for and receive it from the public. We only saw one "gent." (on his Sunday out) in a full car who refused to keep his ticket, and was as rude as he dared be to the Inspector when asked for it; but the latter only smiled at him, and all the passengers followed suit, to his great confusion. The new rule has now the public acquiescence, and is working well.

We have to thank Don Domingo Fresono for his kind contribution of $20 for the Rowsell Fund.

Mascagni's new opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" has obtained the phenomenal success of 45 consecutive representations in London, a feat unparalleled by any other Italian opera.

The mortal remains of the late lamented Mr. Patrick Connelly, who was drowned whilst bathing off Mr. Coffin's wharf on New Year's Day, were found on Monday evening and consigned to their last earthly resting place. Great sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives and friends of the deceased, who was a young man of very estimable parts and a great favourite among his numerous companions. R. I. P. Argentine News.

The Dia of La Plata holds the blasting weather responsible for all the war's alarms and general nervousness of the public there. The Platenses are half cracked with the terrific heat and, our colleague adds, would go raving mad or burst, but that they have the cool waters of the Arroyo Gato to bathe in.

A Chemnitz mechanic has just constructed a horizontal steam engine, with valve gear and all appurtenances complete, within the shell of an ordinary Italian nut. It is the smallest engine in the world. The diameter of the fly-wheel is 10 millimetres (0·4 inch); the boiler is 18 millimetres (0·7 inch) long and 6·5 millimetres (0·26 inch) high. The lilliputian engine is intended for spirit-heating, and is stated to work very well.

Referring to the benefits conferred on this country by railways, the River Plate Railway News makes the following breezy remarks:—"The State was not singular in receiving benefits from the construction of railways. Many landowners of the pre-railway period, accustomed to live on "puchero" from New Year to Christmas, to use as raiment the flowing "poncho" with "chiripa" and etceteras which might serve as a model for Lady Harberton's "dual garmenture" for stronger members of the weaker sex, and to pick the teeth with a bowie knife, now own (or perhaps it would be more correct to say, did until recently) a palace with Mansard roof in a fashionable quarter of B. Ayres, drive over wooden paved streets in a brougham or barouche with Russian horses, dine upon several courses and dessert, and employ a specially prepared toothpick. Most of these blessings came in the train of the railways." "The train of the railways"! Is this a little pun?

They had a high bathing spree at Montevideo on Sunday night at the inauguration of the bathing season at Pocitos. So hot was the weather and so enthused were the visitors that they "did n't go home till morning," and the tramways were running till 2.30 a.m., to the intense disgust of the horses, guards and drivers.

The rumoured cases of yellow fever at Galvez are, happily, some other form of fever; at least some of the doctors there say so.

We have an enquiry for the address of Mr. R. B. Colvin, whom we had the pleasure of welcoming to the Plate in our last issue.

I consider that no estancia which has any stock worth giving medicines to ought to be without these medicines.
The GASEOUS FLUID is the very best colic medicine I have ever seen given to horses, and the RED DRENCH for any illness after foaling or calving or lambing is, I consider splendid.

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed) JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Monday, Jan. 11th.
The gold market opened weak this morning; sixteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at 61.70, fell to 61½, rose to 61.80, and closed at 61.60, say 278½% premium. Two hundred sovereigns were sold at 19.15, say 280% premium. The slight improvement in the market was due to the fact that no revolution broke out yesterday. On Saturday everybody thought that the day of reckoning was at hand; everything, however, passed off quietly yesterday.
Patriotic Bonds were dull and weak; they fell to 57.60 and closed at 57.70. Catalinas glided down to 6.80. National Cedulas E fell to 68½. La Plata Cedulas were weaker than last Saturday and threaten to collapse again.
Exchange was very much offered today, but business ruled dull and rates were nominal. Discounts continue more or less difficult.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first

Alarming political reports were again floated in the hall this afternoon. These reports were traced to the columns of an evening colleague whose sensational news is always read with much avidity in the market. The gold premium did not believe the reports and remained weak.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank closed at 38¼, of the National Bank at 26, and of the English Bank at 17½ discount. Bonos were quoted at 19.

The following are the banking exchange rates in the market in paper:—

London Bank: London 12 11|16, Paris 1.33; Italy 1.36, Germany 1.06½, Spain 1.45.

London and Brazil Bank: London 12¾, Paris 1.35, Italy—, Germany 1.08.

British Bank: London 12¾, Paris 1.32½, Italy 1.36½, Germany 1.07, Spain 1.45½, Belgium 1.33.

Italian Bank: London 12¾, Paris 1.33, Italy 1.35, Germany 1.07.

Nuevo Banco Italiano: London 12¾, Paris 1.33, Italy 1.35, Germany 1.07, Spain 1.44.

Banco de Roma: London 12¾, Paris 1.33, Italy 1.35, Germany 1.07, Spain 1.44.

Banco Anglo-Argentino: London 12 11|16, Paris 1.33, Germany 1.07.

Banco de Comercio: London 12 11|16, Paris 1.33, Italy 1.36, Germany 1.06½, Spain 1.45, Belgium—

Aleman: London 12¾, Paris 1.35, Italy 1.36½, Germany 1.08, Spain 1.46.

Banco Nolasco y sobre Italia a 1.37.

The death of Don Remigio Rigal spread a gloom on Change to-day. Deceased was much esteemed in the market in general and in Spanish circles in particular. He was a leading Spanish merchant and was well known for his success and genial qualities.

There was no yellow-fever news to-day. All the patients on board the pontoon Singapore are doing well and no fresh cases are reported. As for the Galvez scare, there is no foundation whatever to the fever reports.

The gold market ruled weak at the second ring; eight thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the price opened at 61.60, fell to 61.50, and closed at 61.70. These prices would lead one to suppose that the market ruled very steady, but the feeling at the close of the ring was heavy. Soverigns opened at 19.10 and closed at 19.15.

National gold Cedulas fell to 28.30 this afternoon. National E rose to 70, and A paper to 90. La Plata Cedulas were slightly steadier.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring :—

The contract for supplying Villa Devoto with the telephone was signed on Sunday between the agent of Mr. Penrose, manager of the Co-operative Telephone Co., and Messrs. Stoppani, Dellachá, Federico Devoto and M. G. Mulhall, each of whom has subscribed for 10 shares of the Company, besides paying $8 per month.

The Lamport and Holt steamer Hevelius, which was supposed to have free pratique and to be moored in the docks, is still in quarantine, and her agents are not certain when she will get entry.

What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

Tobacco Powder

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has many advantages over Arsenic Powders and Pastes for curing Scab.

Arsenic Powders and Pastes have many objectionable defects

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has none.

Arsenic Powders and Pastes are very dangerous and in many cases large lots of Sheep, Cattle and Horses have been killed by them.

Laidlaw's tobacco Powder has no bad effects on either Sheep or men applying it.

Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder costs less than Arsenic Powders and Pastes, is always of one uniform strength and can be relied upon with perfect confidence, and does not injure the wool, but on the contrary improves the quality and increases the quantity.

ARSENIC POWDERS AND PASTES

Dry and burn the wool, and diminish the quality and quantity.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapgasms, Crampes, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that we have occurred under our personal observation duty many years. In Cholerale Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Convlction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists]

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelmning medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
